THE BOREAL INSTITUTE
LIBRARY
JUN 24 1968

WARNING !

Can. (+41): 713.23

BEARS are WILD animals. Many have lost the fear of man because they are protected in the National Parks. All are dangerous if approached closely.

Food is essential to all wild animals and bears seek food when they approach a person or a car. They may attack you without warning and for no apparent reason.

For your protection Park Regulations prohibit feeding bears.

POLAR
PAM
6052
POLARPAM

PLAY SAFE • DON'T TAKE CHANCES

University of Alberta Library
0 1620 0338 6289

The animals, plants and all other natural features of this Park are protected and preserved for all who may come this way. Please do not harm, remove or damage them.

Published under the authority of
HON. WALTER DINSDALE P.C., M.P.
Minister of Northern Affairs and National Resources